Dear Mary,

You said that you always feel lonely after school. I understand quite well that you came to a new school and had no good friends. I'd like to offer you some useful advice on how to make friends.

To begin with, I recommend you try to start conversations with others because it's better to make the first move. What's more, it's also a good choice to join a club, which will help you find friends who have the same interests. Besides, you and your friends can spend time together playing games or sharing interests.

I'm confident that you will make friends with these suggestions.

Yours,

Li Hua
